7 PM – 7:45 PM Talk Each Evening

7:45 PM – 8 PM Q & A Session

Come deepen your understanding of the basics of the Church's teachings on sin, grace, and salvation; focusing particularly on how to use Lent as a time for receiving God's abundant gifts

Fr. Philip Neri Powell, OP, is a Dominican friar of the Province of St. Martin de Porres. He is originally from the Mississippi Delta and a convert to the Church from Episcopalianism. He completed his doctorate in literature from Ole Miss in 2000 while a novice brother. He did his work in theology and philosophy at The Aquinas Institute in St. Louis and Blackfriars Hall, Oxford University. Ordained a priest in 2005, Fr. Philip Neri served as a campus minister and adjunct professor of English and theology at the University of Dallas. Upon completion of this assignment, he moved to Rome and spent three years completing a license in the philosophy of science at The Angelicum. In 2011, he returned to the U.S. to serve for one year as parochial vicar of St. Dominic Church in NOLA, and he currently serves at Notre Dame Seminary as the Director of Homiletics, a professor of philosophy, and a priest-formator. He is prior of his Dominican community at St. Dominic Church in Lakeview.
